JOB DESCRIPTION:
MD PROGRAM FACULTY LEAD – PHARMACOLOGY & PHARMACOTHERAPEUTICS THEME

Theme Description

The Pharmacology and Pharmacotherapeutics (P&P) Theme encompasses the four year curriculum and assessment modalities designed to ensure MD students achieve the MD Program’s Key and Enabling Competencies relevant to Clinical Pharmacology, together with their relevant milestones. http://www.md.utoronto.ca/mdprogramcompetencies

Role Description

The P&P Theme Lead will work under the guidance of the Director, Program Integration, and will chair the P&P Education Advisory Committee. The Theme Lead Position is equivalent to one day a week.

Leadership and Organization:

The P&P Lead will report directly to the Director Program Integration and work collaboratively with the Foundations and Clerkship Directors of Curriculum, and other Theme Leads within the Faculty. The P&P Theme Lead will constitute and chair a P&P Education Advisory Committee which will advise in the design, development, integration, implementation, and evaluation of the P&P curricular theme and the incorporation of relevant competencies throughout the MD Program curriculum. The P&P Education Advisory Committee is to be composed of representation from the MD Program including the student body, teaching faculty, and representatives from the Faculty of Pharmacy and the Faculty of Medicine Department of Clinical Pharmacology and Toxicology.

Pharmacology Theme Development and Management

In consultation with the MD Program Curriculum Committee and the P&P Education Advisory Committee the P&P Lead will:

1. Provide leadership in conceptualizing, developing, integrating, and evaluating the educational elements that constitute a curricular theme in Pharmacology across the four years of the MD Program curriculum.
2. Establish objectives for the curriculum that are measurable both in terms of student evaluation and program outcomes and are mapped appropriately throughout years one to four of the curriculum.
3. Provide support and mentorship for students who are conducting educational sessions and research on Pharmacology. Facilitate appropriate mentorship for students as needed and requested.
4. Assist with, and participate in, faculty development programs for effective teaching in Pharmacology and Pharmacotherapeutics.
5. Promote Faculty-wide awareness and education about the P&P theme and encourage the involvement of relevant University and community partners in the MD Program. Support an interprofessional approach to education and student assessment in pharmacology and pharmacotherapeutics.
6. Ensure that educational methods, including student evaluation methods for the P&P theme are consistent with the MD Program’s goals and objectives and fosters the development of knowledge, skills and professional attitudes appropriate for graduates of the MD Program.

7. As appropriate, shares, presents and publishes scholarly findings related to design, implementation, outcomes and evaluation of MD Program curriculum regarding the P&P theme.

8. Attend appropriate local and national meetings relevant to duties and responsibilities.

9. Provide an annual report on curriculum activities for the Directors of Foundations and Clerkship, the MD Program Curriculum Committee and the P&P Education Advisory Committee.

10. Provide reports, as needed for LCME/CACMS accreditation in relevant curriculum areas.

Qualifications and Skills Required:

1. Faculty appointment in the Faculty of Medicine or Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Toronto
2. Demonstrated abilities in medical education, research and innovation
3. Demonstrated knowledge and skills in educational design of courses, teaching and learning
4. Demonstrated capacity for collaboration and application of collaborative processes
5. Passion for and experience in education related to Clinical Pharmacology

Term:

This is a renewable three year term contingent upon a successful annual review and performance.
